Link to Affiliate Suite: 7-Stage Run Checklist

A Pickzox bonus for readers of the walkthrough. Print it. Tick each box before you move to the next stage.

Before you paste the command

Check the offer page yourself first. Note the real price, the real deadline, and the guarantee in your own words. The command separates vendor claims from checked facts — but your eyes are the source it trusts most.

The seven stages, checked one by one

Stage	Your check before moving on
1. Offer brief	Vendor claims and checked facts sit in separate lists. Anything marked 'not stated in source' really is absen
2. Bonuses	Every bonus exists as a full file, not an outline. At least one gives the buyer a win inside 30 minutes
3. Covers	Each bonus has its own cover and mockup, with its exact title spelled correctly
4. Bonus page	The affiliate disclosure appears before the first link. The layout matches the template you picked
5. Review pack	The review names who should skip the product. The video script, email and social thread say the same thi
6. Campaign	Every channel you chose is covered, and the run sheet has a task for each day of the promotion
7. Delivery	A delivery method is actually set up (a static page cannot deliver files by itself). The manifest lists every file

Final five minutes

Click every link once. Read the review aloud once — anything you would not say to a friend comes out. Confirm the price and deadline one last time against the sales page. Then schedule, and log the run in your tracker.
