Bilingual Book Title Templates for KDP

8 fill-in title templates for bilingual kids books — plus a keyword reminder for your first 10 listings. A free bonus from Pickzox for readers of the RoyaltyShelf AI review.

Fill in the slots in [brackets] with your own words. Keep the language pair and the age range in every title — that is what bilingual buyers search for.

1. My First Spanish Words — English-Spanish Picture Book for Ages 2–5
Swap the language and the age to fit your book.

2. Learn French with Mia — A Bilingual Story Book for Kids Ages 4–8
Use your hero character's name in place of Mia.

3. German-English Colouring Book for Kids — Fun Animals, First Words, Ages 3–6
Put the activity first, then the language pair, then the age.

4. Portuguese-English Workbook for Kids Ages 5–8 — Tracing, Words and Puzzles
Name the three skills the book teaches.

5. Bilingual Bedtime Stories — Spanish and English Tales for Ages 3–7
Use the reading moment (bedtime, school, travel) as the hook.

6. My Bilingual Alphabet — French-English A to Z for Toddlers Ages 2–4
Alphabet books sell best with a clear age on the cover.

7. Fun with German — A Bilingual Activity Book for Kids Ages 6–10
Use the language as the fun, not the lesson.

8. Portuguese-English Puzzle Book for Kids — Word Search, Mazes and More, Ages 5–9
List the puzzle types so buyers know what is inside.

Keyword reminder for your first 10 listings

Use 7 keywords per listing. Mix the language pair (for example, spanish english kids book), the book type (bilingual colouring book), the age (ages 3-6), and the use (dual language classroom). Never repeat the same 7 keywords on two different books — give each title its own set.